

The CAP – Chief Adjudication panel

Miha Andrič (Slovenia) is an experienced international WSDC judge. In the recent past he served as Chief Adjudicator at many international tournaments such as Nordic Schools Competition 2018, Bluebonnet Texas 2018, Green-hill 2019, EurOpen 2017, Prague Debate Spring 2019, Finland nationals 2017 and many others. He was also a member of the motion committee at tournaments such as USA nationals 2018 and JSMU Pakistan 2016. Miha is working as an international debate trainer. Currently he is Head of Education national debate organisation Slovenia and is serving as a Head of Faculty or Program Director at different international debate academies (Mediterranean Schools Debate Academy, Moscow Schools Debate Academy, Debate Italy Academy, ESU Turkey Debate Academy). As a quest lecturer he trains students, teachers and judges at debate programs and academies all around the world, from USA, UK, and Canada to Russia, Israel, Palestine, Tunisia and many European countries such as Finland, Italy and Germany. In 2014 he was Head Coach of the Turkish national WSDC team, and has been Head Coach of the Slovenian national team since 2015. He is also head of the speech and debate program at Bežigrad High School and Member of the Curricula team the IDEA debate international organisation.

Louisa Broeg (Germany) is a third-year PPE student at the University of Oxford. She CAed this year's edition of Oxford Schools and is also CAing the upcoming editions of Oxford Wom*n's and Warwick Schools. As a speaker, she broke at Astana EUDC, Leiden Open, Sheffield IV, LSE Pro-Am and KCL Online Open, and reached the Final of Warwick IV and Munich Research Open. She is very active in the World Schools circuit and chaired the Semifinal and was on the Finals panel of WSDC 2019, and broke as a judge at WHO, Nordic Schools, EurOpen, Tilbury House, Gwalia Open, and ICYD. Louisa is also experienced in safeguarding and was the equity officer at the Oxford IV, ICYD, ADU Online and Imperial Online IV. Having previously spoken, judged and coached at EurOpen, Louisa is excited to join this year's online edition of the tournament in her new role.

Tracey Lee (Canada) With over twenty years coaching and adjudicating experience in the Canadian and international debating circuit, Tracey currently holds the position of World's Officer with the Canadian Students Debating Federation (CSDF) board. Tracey was a former coach of Team Canada including the Canadian squad that won the World Schools Championship in 2010 and since then has served as the CA for WSDC 2014 Antalya and 2015 Singapore, as well as serving as either CA/CAP member at the WSDC, Harvard World Schools, EurOpen Championships, Prague Spring Debates and the Pan American Debate championships. Tracey is currently the president of the Pan American Debating Organization and the Vice-chair of the WSDC Ltd Board that oversees the world championships. In Canada, Tracey sits on a number of provincial and national debate Boards and is an educator/school counsellor with a Masters degree in Counselling Psychology. In her spare time, Tracey heads the debate and speech program at West Point Grey Academy (Vancouver, BC).

Kithmina Hewage (Sri Lanka) has been a CA of numerous tournaments in Sri Lanka and abroad, most recently at the ARGO Open 2020. He is currently the head coach of Team Sri Lanka, who were runners up at Online WSDC 2020 and champions at the Tilbury House Debating Championship 2020. Before taking on coaching and adjudicating, he debated for Team Sri Lanka at WSDC 2010 and for the Johns Hopkins University.